1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

2. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Davis et al 5,596,642. Davis discloses as seen in column 3 an integrated circuit incorporated in a card (apparatus). The circuit including a processor or microprocessor, memory (storage section), electrical contacts for effecting data transfer (interface circuit) with a peripheral device. The card is a stored value card (SVC) used as a substitute for cash (digital money). There are disclosed at least five program protocols (500, 600, 700, 800, 900) for handling the transactions of the card. There is disclosed at least 3 separate terminals (peripherals) for processing the digital money in conjunction with the SVC. The terminals include processors, control programs, input means (column 4 lines 7-54). The terminals are networked.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Forslund et al 6,250,557, Ohki et al 6,000,607 and Everett et al 6,220,510 all disclose integrated circuit, digital money apparatus.
